

Neoclassic and Romantic

Across

- | | |
|---|--|
| 2. Marat was stabbed by Charlotte ____ 5. The Greek character that Freud named a complex after 6. The Emperor whose column inspired the Place Vendome Column 7. The artist that sculpted George Washington as a Zeus like figure 8. English Romantic painter who dealt with visionary biblical themes 9. Leader of Hudson River school and American landscapist 10. Term for emphasis on light in American landscapes 11. Spanish painter who published "Los Caprichos" | 13. Instrument Marie Antoinette was beheaded by 15. Sturm und Drang means storm and ____ 16. Napoleon designed the Arc de Triomphe based on the triumphal arches of ____ 17. Author of "Les Miserables" 18. Concept that British philosopher Edmund Burke wrote about 19. Assyrian king who was the subject of Byron's play and Delacroix's painting |
|---|--|

Down

1. Location of Napoleon's last battle
3. A leading 18th century French philosopher whose writings inspired the French Revolution
4. Architectural style that saw a revival during the Romantic period
7. Romantic painter interested in human psychology
12. Medium that became popular with English artists for landscape paintings on a small scale
14. The style of Thomas Jefferson's Monticello